21 (Jury panel seated.)

22 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: All rise.

23 THE COURT: Please be seated, Ladies and
24 Gentlemen.

25 Ms. Martin, if you will call the case scheduled for jury selection.

COURTROOM DEPUTY: The Court calls Civil Action No. 2:07-cv-250, Retractable Technologies versus Becton Dickinson and Company.

1 THE COURT: Are the parties ready for
2 jury selection?

3 MR. CARROLL: Plaintiffs are ready, Your
4 Honor.

5 MR. BECK: Defendants are ready, Your
6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: Good morning, Ladies and
8 Gentlemen.

9 As introduced, my name is David Folsom.
10 I'm one of the, I believe, eight district judges in the 11 Eastern District of Texas, which is a large district
12 consisting of some 43 counties running from Beaumont
13 over to Plano, Sherman, back up to Texarkana with 14 divisions in Tyler, and obviously Marshall, Lufkin. I
15 believe that pretty well covers -- Sherman, Plano -- the 16 district.

17 We're here today for jury selection. And 18 let me give you a very thumbnail sketch about what will 19 take place. And I know you've seen the videos already,
20 and I'm not going to try to cover territory that's 21 already been covered, but, generally, the manner I go
22 about jury selection.

23 Very shortly -- and we appreciate, the 24 Court and the parties, your time and attention to the 25 jury questionnaires, which I know took some time to

1 complete on the front end but will save us time in the 2 jury selection process.

3 And for those of you who may have privacy
4 concerns, I've instructed the lawyers at the end of the 5 selection process to return all the copies, and we will
6 destroy all but the original, which we'll keep under 7 seal so it will not be open to the public for 8 inspection.

9 But we appreciate that.

10 We're going to try to conserve your time,
11 because, as you know, there's a second jury to be
12 selected for Judge -- by Judge Everingham for Judge
13 Ward, one of the other district judges in the district,
14 for a case that's going to be tried here in Marshall
15 later in the month of November.

16 But very shortly, I will ask each of you
17 to stand and simply give your names so the lawyers can
18 associate your face with your jury questionnaire.

19 Now, each of you have a number that
20 you're holding, and we're not trying to make this too
21 informal, but I'm confident, from previous experience
22 selecting these juries for many years, there are some of 23 you that are going to need to stand up a number of times
24 and respond to various questions or give comments.
25 And rather than repeat your name each time, if you'll

1 hold up and have your number in front of you, the court
2 reporter can take down that number, and the lawyers will
3 have that number and then can identify you from the list
4 where your number corresponds with your names. So it's 5 a matter of convenience.

6 So very shortly, I'll ask each of you to
7 simply stand up, give your name.

8 After that's done, even though you were 9 asked, I believe, on the jury questionnaire the names of 10 the lawyers and parties involved in this case, I find it
11 beneficial if the lawyers will provide an introduction
12 and where their office is located and an introduction of 13 their party, just to make sure if someone knows any of 14 the -- especially local lawyers, that you can have an 15 opportunity to alert us to that.

16 Now, after that's done, I'm going to ask
17 each side to give a brief five-minute summary of what 18 this case is about from their client's standpoint, the 19 subject matter of the case.

20 Now, let me caution each of you, those
21 particularly that are selected to serve on this jury,
22 don't start forming any opinions about who should win or 23 lose this case from this brief five-minute summary.

24 This is a summary from the parties'
25 standpoint, a summary on behalf of the Plaintiff.

1 The Plaintiff is the party, as you
2 probably heard in the video, that brings the action, and
3 a summary by the Defendant, or the party against whom 4 the action is brought.

5 Now, for those of you selected to serve
6 on the jury, you'll be instructed that you are to arrive
7 at your verdict based upon testimony from the witness
8 stand, exhibits that are introduced into trial, or any 9 stipulations the party may -- parties may enter into.

10 And a stipulation is simply an agreement
11 what testimony would have been if testimony had been 12 taken. So you may say, well, why the five-minute
13 summary?

14 Well, this allows you to hear a little
15 something about the case to know if there's something --
16 one, that you might know something about the case.

17 Occasionally, we'll have a case that
18 receives local publicity or you hear about it by word of 19 mouth. So this allows you to determine if you know
20 anything by way of publicity about this case.

21 Or, two, there's something in your
22 background that you may know something generally about 23 the subject matter of this case. So that's what that
24 five-minute explanation is designed to do.

25 I'll have some brief questions. And I've

1 looked at your jury questionnaires but not nearly as
2 closely as these lawyers have, and I only released these
3 yesterday, I might add. And I'll try not to cover
4 ground that's already been covered by your jury
5 questionnaire nor will the lawyers, but, necessarily,
6 there will be some follow-up questions as a result of 7 some of the responses you have.

8 After my questions, I've given each side
9 20 minutes to ask follow-up questions or new questions
10 not covered by the jury questionnaire.

11 Now, please keep in mind that at anytime
12 that there's something of a personal nature, you're 13 entitled to approach the bench, and we'll take it up in 14 private with one lawyer from each side being entitled to 15 be present. And the court reporter will be taking 16 down -- taking down your comments and my comments and 17 the comments of the lawyers.

18 In that regard, please speak up when
19 you're responding to a question or making comments. The 20 court reporter is taking down all of our comments, and 21 it's important to speak up so she can take those down as 22 they are spoken.

23 At the conclusion of this process, for 24 those of you concerned about the schedule of trial of 25 the case, I will give you information on the -- when

1 this case will be tried, my normal -- normal practice of
2 what is a typical day, so you'll know what your schedule
3 is going to be.

4 And I'll give you an opportunity to tell
5 me if this creates a hardship, so don't be concerned.
6 I'm going to give everyone an opportunity to determine
7 if it would be -- cause a hardship for anyone to serve
8 on this jury.

9 You know, there are no right or wrong
10 answers to any of these questions. Everyone on the 11 panel may have a different response to a particular 12 question. They may all be correct. We just need your 13 honest thoughts on whatever the subject matter of the 14 question might be.

15 And all of you are best-suited to 16 determine obviously what that response is from each of 17 you.

18 With those brief comments, we will start
19 with Juror No. 1. I believe we have a mic that we'll 20 pass around. If you'll just stand up and give us the 21 benefit of your name, please.

22 JUROR CAMPBELL: Alison Campbell.

23 THE COURT: If you'll just pass the mic.

24 JUROR MCCORMACK: Ray McCormack.

15 that way.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 JUROR BAYNE: Diana Bayne.

18 JUROR KIPP: Robert Kipp.

19 JUROR ALDRIDGE: Debra Aldridge.

12 JUROR HARDING: Dorothy Harding.

13 JUROR COX: James Cox.

14 JUROR PAYNE: Dennis Payne.

15 THE COURT: Is that everyone?

16 I appreciate that introduction.

17 And I apologize. I introduced myself,
18 but I didn't introduce my staff. Over to my left --
19 John, if you will please stand up.

20 This is Mr. John ++Lahon, who is a recent 21 graduate of law school -- of law school in Houston. And 22 he's going to be with me serving as a law clerk for the 23 next year.

24 Then David Keyzer, who was a law clerk of 25 mine a couple two or three years ago. He's from

1 California. Moved back; was in practice; missed East
2 Texas so much he wanted to come back.

3 So those of you selected on -- thank
4 you -- selected to serve will be seeing these two young
5 men during the trial.

6 And then everyone's met Mel Martin, my
7 courtroom deputy, who took care of, obviously, the jury
8 qualifications. And she will handle the swearing in of 9 witnesses and exhibits during the trial.

10 Judy Werlinger, the court reporter. As I
11 told you earlier, it makes her job a lot easier if we 12 all speak up so she can easily hear us.

13 Mr. Bill Potts, the court security
14 officer. You will see Mr. Potts or someone else by way
15 of the court security officer during the trial.

16 I believe I've introduced everyone.

17 Now, I'm going to ask the lawyers -- and 18 one lawyer can introduce everyone, if you like --
19 provide an introduction and where your office is located
20 and your client.

21 Mr. Carroll, you want to do that?

22 MR. CARROLL: If the Court please, Your
23 Honor.

24 Good morning. Excuse me.

25 I'm Otis Carroll. I live over in Tyler,

1 and I'm one of the lawyers for the Plaintiff in the
2 lawsuit. And the Plaintiff is a company in a county
3 north of Dallas called Denton County. And the name of 4 the company is Retractable Technologies, because that
5 describes what we're here about, retractable
6 technologies.

7 Retractable Technologies, the face is
8 going to be a great face, and that's Ms. Kathryn
9 Duesman.

10 And Ms. Duesman will you stand, please.

11 Ms. Duesman lives near Little Elm on her
12 family farm. She is a nurse, and you will be hearing
13 from her in this trial.

14 Thank you, Ms. Duesman.

15 The founder of Retractable Technologies
16 and the fellow who invented the patents we're fussing
17 over is Mr. Tom Shaw.

18 Mr. Shaw, would you stand, please?

19 Mr. Shaw lives up in Denton County as 20 well.

21 Thank you, Mr. Shaw.

22 The lawyers you'll be hearing from is my
23 friend, George Bowles and Roy Hardin, two fine lawyers
24 from Dallas. And I guess -- is Tom going to address the 25 jury?

1 Well, Tom, where are you?

2 I mean, Steve. Steve. It's starting
3 already. I'm 60 years old.

4 Okay. And we three -- one, two, three --
5 we four will be addressing the Court. And I think that 6 Michele Larios is our company lawyer. She's kind of our 7 boss, so I need to introduce her.

8 And I believe that's it.

9 THE COURT: Who else is in your firm,
10 Mr. Carroll?

11 MR. CARROLL: Deborah Race, my partner,
12 my lawyer. Every firm has a lawyer; she's ours. She's 13 here, and I believe that's it from our crowd.

14 Bill Lavender from Texarkana and Mike
15 Miller from across the street. That's our crew, Your
16 Honor.

17 THE COURT: Who else is in your office in 18 Tyler?

19 MR. CARROLL: Oh, oh, oh, okay.

20 Pat Kelley, one of my partners. Collin
21 Maloney, another one of my partners.

22 And I'm proud to say my daughter, who is
23 a brand new lawyer, and her name is Mandy Nelson. I
24 can't ever remember her married name, but she used to be 25 Mandy Carroll.

1 And that's it. Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: With this introduction -- and
3 like I said, I know all these names were mentioned in 4 the jury questionnaire, but I think it's helpful to see
5 them in person and hear these comments.

6 Does anyone on the panel know any of the 7 lawyers? Have you been represented by any of them or an
8 immediate member of your family? And when I say
9 immediate member of your family, I'm generally talking
10 about husband, wife, mother, father, son, daughter,
11 maybe brother, sister.

12 Does anyone know any of the lawyers on 13 the Plaintiff's side of the case?

14 Does anyone know any of the -- know the 15 Plaintiff, who you'll hear commonly referred to as RTI,
16 or any of the corporate representatives?

17 Now, Mr. Beck --

18 MR. BECK: May it please the Court.

19 THE COURT: -- same introduction from the 20 Defendant's standpoint.

21 MR. BECK: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 Ladies and Gentlemen, my name David Beck.
23 I practice law in Houston, Texas.

24 Assisting me in this lawsuit will be my 25 partner, Alistair Dawson. He's also from Houston. We

1 also have David Carter from Texarkana. He's going to be
2 working with us on this matter. And Lisa Pirozzolo from
3 Washington --

4 MS. PIROZZOLO: Boston.

5 MR. BECK: Excuse me. Boston,
6 Massachusetts, is also going to be working with us on
7 this case.

8 And I'd like to introduce the
9 representative of our client, which is Becton Dickinson,
10 which is a medical device, medical product company.

11 And this is Mr. Bill Kozy, who's the 12 Executive Vice President of the company, and he will be 13 here during the trial. So you will see him throughout
14 the entire trial.

15 And that, Your Honor, comprises our 16 group.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Carter, who else is in
18 your firm, since they're a little closer to Marshall?

19 MR. CARTER: All right. I have two
20 partners who practice with me in Texarkana: John Mercy
21 and John Tidwell.

22 THE COURT: Likewise, does anyone know
23 any of the attorneys on the Defendant's side of the 24 case, or have you been represented by them past or 25 present, or an immediate member of your family? Or do

1 you know the Defendant?

2 Yes, if you will please stand up. Yes?

3 JUROR PEACE: I know both of his
4 partners, John Mercy and John Tidwell.

5 THE COURT: And how would you
6 characterize knowing -- social or professional or --

7 JUROR PEACE: Social.

8 THE COURT: Social. Anything about that
9 that would tend to give Mr. Carter's side of the case an
10 advantage or disadvantage?

11 JUROR PEACE: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: Very well. You might have
13 some follow-up questions in that regard, but thank you.

14 That's the type of information we're
15 looking for as we go through this process.

16 Anyone else?

17 Thank you.

18 Now, I'm going to ask for this short,
19 five-minute summary of the subject matter of the case
20 from each party's standpoint. And I will caution you
21 yet a second time, don't start forming any opinions
22 about who should win or any of the -- decision on any of 23 the merits of the case. This is for informational
24 purposes only.

25 Mr. Carroll.

1 MR. CARROLL: If the Court please, Your
2 Honor.

3 Ladies and Gentlemen, you know this is a
4 patent lawsuit. You saw the film that the Judge showed
5 you. The technology that we're talking about in this
6 lawsuit has to do with what I, as a layperson, call a
7 shot needle. And I think the term that the people who
8 really know about them will use is a syringe and needle.

9 A syringe and needle.

10 The other term you're going to hear about
11 in this case is a disease that has become, we think, a
12 real problem and a health risk, and it's called
13 needlestick. Needlestick.

14 What that means is when somebody gives me
15 a shot with a sterile needle, once it punctures my skin,
16 it's no longer sterile because it's been in me, and it
17 becomes contaminated. And once it's contaminated, it's 18 a risk, because nobody knows whether I have hepatitis or 19 HIV or any other thing that could make somebody else get 20 sick if they were to get stuck by that needle.

21 Now, here's what the invention that
22 Mr. Shaw came up with, and Ms. Duesman's company, our 23 company, sells. And this is all we sell, and that is 24 our idea as to how to needlestick 100 percent of the 25 time, and that is with a shot needle that retracts

1 automatically inside the person once the shot is done.
2 So that the nurse sticks me in the arm, pushes what
3 you'll hear as the plunger of the syringe all the way
4 down until all the medicine is in me.

5 And once she gets done, or he gets done,
6 with pushing that plunger all the way down, the needle
7 automatically pops back up into the barrel of that
8 syringe where it can't hurt anybody ever, never, ever.

9 And that's our invention.

10 We say -- we say that our friends over
11 here at Becton Dickinson knocked us off; that they took 12 our idea and they put some bells and whistles on it and 13 they sold it; but that it constitutes what you heard
14 described today in Judge Folsom's film as patent
15 infringement.

16 So during this case, what we will tell
17 you about, through our witnesses, is, number one, what 18 we believe to be the problem. And I think we're going 19 to be in agreement as to this needlestick, the former 20 name is something called bloodborne pathogens, I'm told.

21 And, number two, how Tom Shaw came up
22 with his invention to solve this problem.

23 And, number three, why we say and will
24 argue to you and bring you evidence that our friends
25 over here infringed our patent or trespassed on our

1 property.

2 At the end of the case, we will be asking
3 you for a verdict that they have, in fact, infringed our
4 patent and that our patent had value and that we're
5 entitled to be paid a royalty.

6 You'll find out a little bit about our
7 company. I told you just a second ago it's in Little
8 Elm, Texas. Judge Folsom told you about the 43 counties
9 in our judicial district. Believe it or not, Denton
10 County is in the Eastern District of Texas, and that's 11 where we are.

12 So we are in the judicial district with 13 Marshall and Texarkana and Beaumont and Lufkin and 14 Tyler. And we employ about 150 people up there, and 15 that's where we are.

16 So that is about it for us, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Carroll.

18 MR. CARROLL: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Beck.

20 MR. BECK: May it please --

21 THE COURT: -- statement on behalf of the 22 Defendant.

23 MR. BECK: Thank you, Your Honor. May it
24 please the Court.

25 First of all, Ladies and Gentlemen, I

1 want to thank you for giving us a lot of information
2 about yourselves on the questionnaires. And I know --
3 and my wife watched -- we tried a lawsuit one time, and 4 she thought it a little bit unfair for the jurors to be
5 telling us about your private lives without us saying
6 something about ours, so let me just very briefly say
7 that I'm married. Met my wife in high school. We dated
8 for a long time, and after I got out of school, we got 9 married. Been married for 40 years to the same woman.
10 We've got three kids. The two girls were real easy to 11 raise. The son was a little bit more of a challenge.
12 Went from high school to the Marine Corps to 13 months
13 in Iraq. And thank God he's back home, and he's back
14 safe.

15 So just wanted to share with you a little
16 bit, because we're going to be spending some time
17 together. I just wanted to make sure that I was sharing
18 a little bit of information about us as well.

19 Let me tell you about our position in 20 this case. As you know, I represent Becton Dickinson.
21 It is a company that began in 1897 right up Highway 59
22 in Texarkana.

23 You had two men, Mr. Becton and
24 Mr. Dickinson, who met and shook hands in a train
25 station in Texarkana. And the rest is history, as they

1 say.

2 Becton Dickinson has been a pioneer and a
3 leader in medical devices, in syringe and other forms of 4 injection devices.

5 We have a dispute in this case. It's a
6 legitimate dispute; it's a fight about technologies.

7 We're not going to have any dispute about
8 needlestick injuries. Needlestick injuries have been a
9 problem for a long time. Nobody disputes that 10 needlestick injuries can cause serious and sometimes
11 deadly type of injuries and disease.

12 But, fortunately -- fortunately in this
13 country, and, frankly, elsewhere, we have created people
14 that when they see a need, they come up with ideas to 15 try to address that need. Different people come up with 16 different ideas. Different people develop different
17 technologies.

18 And that's really the dispute we have
19 here. They have one way of utilizing a retractable
20 syringe; we have another way.

21 They have one technology which is called 22 friction and clamping. Ours is totally different. It's 23 based on what you're going to hear as a cutting
24 technology.

25 So our position is they've got a product;

1 they think their product is a good product. We have a
2 product, which is different, which we think is a good
3 product.

4 And at the end of the day, we believe
5 that after you hear the evidence, you will conclude that 6 these technologies are different; these products are 7 very, very different; and that healthcare workers really
8 ought to have a choice about selecting which of the 9 technologies that they prefer. And that basically is 10 what this lawsuit is about.

11 So, again, at the end of the day, we look
12 forward to presenting our case to you, showing you our 13 technology, showing you how it's different, and 14 explaining to you why their technology, which they 15 believe is a good technology, is very different from our 16 technology and, therefore, there is no infringement.

17 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Beck.

18 MR. BECK: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Now that you've heard a
20 little more about the subject matter of this case, has 21 anyone heard any publicity, word-of-mouth, news
22 accounts, anything of that nature concerning either this
23 lawsuit or perhaps the subject matter of this lawsuit,
24 needlestick injuries and safety syringes? Anyone on the 25 panel?

1 Now, I know from my review of the jury
2 questionnaires, there are a number of members of the
3 panel that either are involved in the healthcare
4 industry profession or an immediate member of your
5 family or maybe you give injections to yourself or a
6 member of your family.

7 Will those that gave those responses
8 simply raise your card, your number?

9 Give us a little time. 3, 4, 5, 14, 9,
10 10, 21, and 38.

11 Now, has anyone, to your knowledge, used
12 the product of either of these parties, RTI or BD, as I
13 will refer to them? Has anyone used those particular
14 products before?

15 Yes. If you'll please stand up and tell
16 us -- let me see -- Mr. George?

17 JUROR GEORGE: I'm an EMT intermediate,
18 and we use the --

19 THE COURT: Excuse me. Mr. Potts will
20 you give him the mic? It will be a little easier on our 21 court reporter.

22 JUROR GEORGE: Okay. I'm an EMT
23 intermediate, and I have used BD both the -- for the IV
24 caths. I've never used the particular product that 25 they're talking about now.

1 THE COURT: Have you used a safety --

2 JUROR GEORGE: Yes.

3 THE COURT: -- syringe of anyone's
4 manufacture?

5 JUROR GEORGE: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Do you know who the
7 manufacture might have been?

8 JUROR GEORGE: I think it was Johnson &
9 Johnson.

10 THE COURT: Johnson & Johnson.

11 Anything about your -- your knowledge and 12 your profession that might give one side of the case an 13 advantage or disadvantage, you feel, in this case? Is 14 there anything about the use of a product manufactured
15 by BD that in your opinion might give one side of the 16 case an advantage or disadvantage?

17 JUROR GEORGE: No, sir.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Anyone else that raised a card that might
20 have used either a product of one of the parties or a --
21 particularly what I'll call a safety syringe or needle
22 to prevent sticks? Has anyone else on -- yes, if you'll 23 please stand up.

24 Ms. Fisher; is that correct?

25 JUROR FISHER: Correct. Celeste Fisher.

1 I'm a registered nurse, and I've used several different
2 brands of safety syringes and IV needles.

3 THE COURT: Where are you employed?

4 JUROR FISHER: I work for the Hospice of
5 East Texas in Tyler.

6 THE COURT: And tell us about your
7 experience with those products, if you know the 8 manufacturer of the products.

9 JUROR FISHER: I typically don't look at
10 the labels. I just use whatever is in central supply.
11 And so I've never really paid attention. I know I've 12 used some of the BD products. I've seen those labels
13 before, but if I were to say right now what brand of 14 supply we have in our central supply room, I couldn't 15 tell you.

16 THE COURT: Very well.

17 Anything about your knowledge of those
18 products, regardless of who may have manufactured them,
19 that might give one side of this case in your opinion an
20 advantage or disadvantage?

21 JUROR FISHER: No.

22 THE COURT: Or would make it --

23 JUROR FISHER: No, sir.

24 THE COURT: -- inappropriate in your
25 opinion to serve?

1 Sometimes you'll hear lawyers use the
2 term, fair. Well, I'm confident everybody on the panel
3 can be fair in this case, so I like to use the term,
4 appropriate or inappropriate. If there's something
5 about someone's background or training or knowledge that
6 might make it quite appropriate for you to serve on one
7 case but maybe not this case.

8 So you feel there's nothing about your
9 background or use of the products that would give one
10 side an advantage or disadvantage?

11 JUROR FISHER: That's correct.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 I'm confident that there will be some 14 follow-up questions from the lawyers and probably 15 members of the panel.

16 Anyone else that has had experience
17 giving injections that you need to talk about in terms
18 of particularly safety -- safety syringes or needles?

19 Thank you.

20 Has anyone -- and I know from looking at 21 the jury questionnaires, we've had at least one person
22 involved in research and development. But anyone on the 23 panel or an immediate member of your family that perhaps
24 your job, or simply pastime, you're involved in research
25 development maybe with a purpose of inventing something?

1 Anyone on the panel or an immediate
2 member of your family that maybe has some involvement in
3 research and development, inventing products, or maybe
4 your employer has holds, what we call intellectual
5 property patents? Anyone on the panel?

6 Maybe I was mistaken. I thought that --
7 yes. No. 14, Mr. Rogers.

8 JUROR ROGERS: I work for a company
9 called Cloeren Incorporated, here in Marshall, Texas.
10 And our parent company is in Orange, Texas.

11 THE COURT: Are you the software
12 engineer?

13 JUROR ROGERS: No, sir. I'm a plant
14 manager here in Marshall.

15 THE COURT: Plant manager. Very well.

16 JUROR ROGERS: Yes, sir.

17 Our owner, Peter Cloeren, Jr., is
18 involved in a lot of patent work, and I'm not real
19 familiar with it. I just know he holds a lot of patents
20 for exclusion dies.

21 THE COURT: Anything about that that
22 might give one side of the case an advantage or
23 disadvantage?

24 JUROR ROGERS: Well, I've heard a little
25 bit about what he's -- the lawsuits he's been through

1 with patents. I'm not -- I'm not familiar with them.

2 THE COURT: Has he brought lawsuits or
3 had lawsuits brought against him?

4 JUROR ROGERS: No, he's brought lawsuits.

5 THE COURT: Brought lawsuits.

6 JUROR ROGERS: Yes, sir, correct. I'm
7 not sure who with. I'm not sure.

8 THE COURT: Anything about that, in your 9 opinion, might give one side of the case an advantage or 10 disadvantage?

11 JUROR ROGERS: No, sir.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Anyone else on the panel, you or an
14 immediate member of your family, might have a similar
15 experience or knowledge concerning this subject matter?

16 Thank you.

17 Does anyone -- when I am involved in a
18 jury case, I'm fond of saying there are two judges in 19 every case. I'm the judge of the law, and the jury
20 selected will be the judge of the facts. You will judge
21 the credibility of witnesses, and I'll give you
22 instructions in that regard.

23 But one concept occasionally that members
24 of panels have difficulty with is this concept I'm judge
25 of the law, and I will give you the law that applies to

1 this case. And you're duty-bound to follow that law
2 whether you agree with it or not.

3 And I guess it would be nice if I could
4 read the jury charge in advance and tell you what the
5 law of this case would be, but oftentimes, we don't know
6 until all the testimony is in what the jury charge will
7 be, plus it would take me, I hate to tell you this,
8 probably about 45 minutes to read it. That's been my
9 experience. So we don't have the luxury of reading it
10 on the front end.

11 But, occasionally -- and you'll
12 probably -- if this case holds true, the lawyers, during 13 their part of this case, will probably talk about the 14 various burdens and what's required before you can find
15 for or against a party.

16 And, occasionally, I'll have someone that 17 sort of disagrees with what the law might be in this 18 type of case or any other. And, occasionally, I'm 19 told -- and that's quite fine, if that's your opinion --
20 that, Judge, I just don't agree with that concept. I
21 should be able to determine what the law should be and 22 apply it as I feel it should be.

23 One of the best examples I have of that,
24 and I know some of these lawyers have probably heard it
25 before, but I'm going to repeat it, because it brings

1 this concept home very well.

2 A few years ago in Texarkana -- I have
3 most of my dockets in Texarkana and then I'm in Marshall
4 generally in October and March of each year.

5 But I'm selecting a criminal case up in
6 Texarkana, and it involved marijuana, the possession of 7 a rather large amount of marijuana. And I withdrew this
8 statement, or words to that effect. I had someone in 9 the jury panel -- I can remember the exact location --
10 stand up and say: Judge, I just have a problem
11 following the law in this case.

12 And, generally, in a drug case, you
13 expect to hear, well, I know people that have been
14 damaged by drugs or a family member, and I just couldn't 15 be fair.

16 But his statement was, he said: Judge,
17 in my opinion, marijuana was put on the earth by God and
18 it grows in nature, and I just couldn't convict anyone
19 of possessing marijuana because it's grown in nature.

20 Well, his opinion was he just couldn't
21 follow the law in that regard. So that's the concept
22 I'm talking about.

23 And as the lawyers start talking about
24 these concepts of maybe the law that applies in this 25 case, what I'm looking for and what the parties are

1 entitled to is a jury that can sort of set aside your
2 common experiences, listen to the testimony from the
3 witness stand, look at the exhibits, and arrive at a
4 verdict based upon the law as I -- as I give it to you,
5 and apply that law whether you necessarily agree with it
6 or not.

7 Does anyone have any problem with that
8 concept? If so, here's the time to let us know.

9 I hope I've explained it in an
10 understandable fashion.

11 Now, in the past when I first started
12 practicing law and first became a judge, you know, I
13 would always instruct members of the jury not to read
14 the newspaper or watch TV accounts. And I don't know if
15 there will be any TV news on this or paper -- newspaper
16 accounts. But now we have all the modern technology of 17 internet.

18 And those of you selected to serve, I'm 19 going to instruct you that you can't do research on the 20 internet concerning the subject matter of this case.

21 There have been problems -- I've never
22 had that, and I don't recall one in East Texas where 23 jury members go on various websites and talk about their 24 experiences, MySpace and others.

25 And I'm going to instruct you, you cannot

1 do that. Some people, I think, are so addicted to their
2 computer and those sort of websites that they just have
3 difficulty not doing that.

4 Would anyone have any problem -- you can
5 certainly use your computer, but you just can't research
6 the subject matter of this lawsuit or tell your friends
7 on the internet about your service on the jury during 8 the trial.

9 Does anyone have any problem with that?

10 Thank you.

11 Now, I think that's, for the time being,
12 going to be most of my questions. I'm going to turn it
13 over to first Mr. Carroll.

14 The Plaintiff always goes first, and
15 maybe you saw this in the video, which may seem a little 16 unfair. But on most issues in the case, they have the 17 burden, so they go first, and then the Defendant follows
18 up.

19 Mr. Carroll.

20 MR. CARROLL: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: You've got 20 minutes --

22 MR. CARROLL: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: -- for you and follow-up
24 questions.

25 MR. CARROLL: Thank you, Your Honor. If

1 the Court please.

2 Ms. Campbell, I've got to tell you, you
3 provoked quite a controversy in our room last night when
4 we were reading your questionnaire.

5 You want to know why?

6 JUROR CAMPBELL: Sure.

7 MR. CARROLL: Because you're the only
8 person who knew how to spell plagiarism.

9 JUROR CAMPBELL: Fourth-grade teacher.

10 MR. CARROLL: Fourth-grade teacher.

11 Well, let me tell you what; we had a lot
12 of funny, funny attempts to spell that word.

13 One of the issues in this case, we say,
14 is plagiarism; that our friends over here took our
15 property, our idea, and profited by it.

16 What do you -- what grade do you give 17 your fourth graders if they copy somebody's paper and 18 you find out about it?

19 JUROR CAMPBELL: Zero.

20 MR. CARROLL: A zero. In this case,
21 we're offering them a 75. What do you think about that?

22 JUROR CAMPBELL: You're more lenient than 23 I am.

24 MR. CARROLL: Well, let me tell you why.

25 One of the things that you're going to

1 hear about in this case is that patent law -- I think
2 Judge Folsom will tell you this -- involves a concept
3 that some of us in East Texas -- not me,
4 unfortunately -- but some folks are fortunate enough to
5 know about, and that's called a royalty.

6 Have you ever heard that term, a royalty?

7 JUROR CAMPBELL: Yes, sir.

8 MR. CARROLL: Let's see. You live in Ore
9 City?

10 JUROR CAMPBELL: Uh-huh.

11 MR. CARROLL: And y'all have a fair
12 amount of oil and gas production up there, and you know
13 from time to time, if you're lucky and you own your 14 property and your minerals, maybe an oil company will 15 drill on it and maybe you'll get some royalty money.

16 JUROR CAMPBELL: Uh-huh.

17 MR. CARROLL: That's what we're asking
18 for. We're asking for a royalty for what we say is 19 their trespass against our property.

20 One of the things -- and this is -- I'm 21 about to ask you a question, believe it or not.

22 THE COURT: That would be nice,
23 Mr. Carroll.

24 MR. CARROLL: Thank you, Your Honor.
25 I'll try.

1 One of the things that you're going to
2 find out, if you're on the jury, is that we have to play
3 like; we have to go back to the time we say they first
4 trespassed and figure out what would have been done in
5 the negotiation; that is, what we would have done way
6 back then. And our burden is to prove what we think
7 would have been done.

8 Now, do you have any problem going back
9 and -- with us and looking at the world as it was in 10 2000, which is when we say this first trespass occurred?

11 JUROR CAMPBELL: No, sir.

12 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Because that's what
13 the law is going to say.

14 All right. Thank you, ma'am.

15 Where do you teach, by the way?

16 JUROR CAMPBELL: Hudson PEP in Longview.

17 MR. CARROLL: Thank you.

18 Let me -- Ms. McGuire, where are you?

19 There you are.

20 And you are up in Pittsburgh.

21 JUROR MCGUIRE: Correct. I live in 22 Pittsburgh.

23 MR. CARROLL: And you practice accounting
24 and financial --

25 JUROR MCGUIRE: In Mt. Pleasant.

1 MR. CARROLL: In Mt. Pleasant. And I
2 believe you're a CPA.

3 JUROR MCGUIRE: Yes, sir.

4 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Are you in the
5 business from time to time of projecting values on 6 royalties?

7 JUROR MCGUIRE: Not on royalties
8 necessarily, no, sir.

9 MR. CARROLL: Have you ever heard the
10 concept of a paid-up royalty?

11 JUROR MCGUIRE: Yes.

12 MR. CARROLL: Okay. And would you agree
13 with me that from time to time it makes sense, if you
14 have the opportunity, to go ahead and take your money
15 upfront rather than risk what you and the other party
16 think may happen doesn't happen?

17 JUROR MCGUIRE: Correct.

18 MR. CARROLL: I mean, that's -- sometimes
19 that's pretty good business sense, is it not?

20 JUROR MCGUIRE: Yes, sir.

21 MR. CARROLL: So if our CPA in this case
22 talks about a paid-up reasonable royalty that he says we 23 would have talked about back in 2000, that's not a
24 concept unfamiliar to you as a CPA.

25 JUROR MCGUIRE: That's correct.

1 MR. CARROLL: Okay. And you practice
2 with your daddy?

3 JUROR MCGUIRE: No, sir. My husband, but
4 he's retired.

5 MR. CARROLL: Well, good for him.

6 JUROR MCGUIRE: Yes.

7 MR. CARROLL: How does he get away with
8 that?

9 JUROR MCGUIRE: I let him off.

10 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Thank you, ma'am.
11 And if I can do this, Ms. Fisher, I'm
12 going to start with you, if you don't mind.

13 And then, Mr. George, I'm going to talk
14 to you as well.

15 Has either of you -- and I know Judge
16 Folsom asked you this -- but has either of you seen
17 retractable technology?

18 You heard me describe it a minute ago.
19 Have you ever seen that?

20 JUROR FISHER: I have.

21 MR. CARROLL: Okay. But you don't know
22 who made it?

23 JUROR FISHER: I couldn't tell you. The 24 ones that I've used, I couldn't tell you who the 25 manufacturer was.

1 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Have you seen also
2 the other non-retractable, quote, safety needles with
3 various sleeves and devices that you have to manually
4 put over the contaminated needle?

5 JUROR FISHER: Yes. We have -- we
6 actually have those types at work.

7 MR. CARROLL: Okay. And you know that
8 the industry actually still has unguarded needles out
9 there?

10 JUROR FISHER: Correct.

11 MR. CARROLL: And a whole bunch of them.

12 Now, what do you suppose the answer is as 13 to why there are unguarded needles still out there?

14 JUROR FISHER: My personal opinion would
15 probably be that they're lower cost, I guess.

16 MR. CARROLL: Okay.

17 JUROR FISHER: You know, people are
18 always looking at ways to find low cost --

19 MR. CARROLL: Okay.

20 JUROR FISHER: -- supplies. I don't
21 know.

22 Maybe some smaller-type needles,
23 subcutaneous needles, tubercular needles are probably 24 more difficult to make into safety items because of 25 their size.

1 MR. CARROLL: Okay.

2 JUROR FISHER: I don't know.

3 MR. CARROLL: Are you old enough to
4 remember when cars didn't come with seatbelts?

5 Probably not.

6 JUROR FISHER: I think we had one of
7 those when I was a kid a long time ago. I'm not sure.

8 MR. CARROLL: Well, I can tell you, there
9 are a some of us who remember those days.

10 Who do you reckon required that car
11 companies put seatbelts in cars? Do you think they did
12 it on their own or somebody made them?

13 JUROR FISHER: I think it was probably a
14 regulatory thing, our government.

15 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Is that common, in 16 your experience, as to when products are made safe, that 17 somebody makes an industry make them safe?

18 JUROR FISHER: I'm sure that the 19 combination of the industry recognizing the need and the 20 government saying that there's a need.

21 MR. CARROLL: Okay.

22 JUROR FISHER: My guess is more often it
23 starts from a regulatory perspective.

24 MR. CARROLL: Okay. And healthcare is 25 regulated, is it not?

1 JUROR FISHER: Very much so.

2 MR. CARROLL: Do you think healthcare
3 needs to change? I mean, that's the big debate, right?

4 JUROR FISHER: I think there's room for
5 improvement in a lot of areas in healthcare.

6 MR. CARROLL: Have you always done
7 patient care in your practice?

8 JUROR FISHER: No. I started out doing
9 patient care, and I'm currently in a supervisory role.

10 MR. CARROLL: There at the hospital?

11 JUROR FISHER: Yes, sir.

12 MR. CARROLL: Or here at the hospital?

13 JUROR FISHER: Well, it's at an office in 14 Tyler, but we -- we serve 23 counties. So our nurses
15 are in this area.

17 JUROR FISHER: Uh-huh.

18 MR. CARROLL: Mr. George, let me ask you
19 basically the same questions that Ms. Fisher and I
20 talked about.

21 Have you used retractable technology?

22 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir, I have.

23 MR. CARROLL: Do you know -- I think
24 Judge Folsom asked you, but do you remember who made it?

25 JUROR GEORGE: No, sir. I think it was

1 made my Johnson & Johnson. I can't --

2 MR. CARROLL: Maybe you already said

4 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir.

5 MR. CARROLL: Okay. And is your answer
6 the same as Ms. Fisher's, that you've also seen the 7 non-retractable that requires you manually to put the 8 sleeve or guard, or whatever you call it, over the 9 needle?

10 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir.

11 MR. CARROLL: Have you ever heard the
12 term, keeping your hands behind the sharp?

13 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir.

14 MR. CARROLL: What does that mean?

15 JUROR GEORGE: It means don't put your
16 hand out where you could get a needlestick.

17 MR. CARROLL: Right. So the idea is that
18 if that's my shot needle, I always want to be downstream
19 of the point?

20 JUROR GEORGE: Correct.

21 MR. CARROLL: Have you ever had a
22 needlestick?

23 JUROR GEORGE: No, sir. Came close a
24 couple of times, but never an actual stick.

25 MR. CARROLL: And you agree with my

1 friend, David Beck, and me that that's a real risk?

2 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir, it is.

3 MR. CARROLL: Okay. You think industry
4 is doing enough to deal with it?

5 JUROR GEORGE: Well, like she said,
6 there's always room for improvement.

7 MR. CARROLL: Okay, okay. And are you an 8 EMT here in Marshall?

9 JUROR GEORGE: No, sir.

10 MR. CARROLL: Where are you working?

11 JUROR GEORGE: I'm currently employed by
12 Trinity Rail. We build railroad tank cars, and I -- you
13 do first aid and things of that nature. I've been a
14 volunteer EMS services and things of that nature. I
15 also hold a state-certified EMS instructor.

16 MR. CARROLL: Okay. So you know all
17 about shot needles?

18 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir.

19 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Thank you, sir.
20 And you live in Hallsville?

21 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir.

22 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Ms. Gill?

23 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

24 MR. CARROLL: May I chat with you?

25 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

1 MR. CARROLL: You work over in Longview
2 at Good Shepherd?

3 JUROR GILL: No, sir. Here in Marshall.

4 MR. CARROLL: Here in Marshall?

5 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

6 MR. CARROLL: At what used to be Marshall
7 Regional, but it's now part of Good Shepherd?

8 JUROR GILL: Correct.

9 MR. CARROLL: Okay. I mean, you know
10 about a needlestick, don't you?

11 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

12 MR. CARROLL: And you know what happens
13 when a -- when a used shot needle is on the ground,
14 that's a bad deal, isn't it?

15 JUROR GILL: Bad deal, yes, sir.

16 MR. CARROLL: Now, you have something to 17 do with linen service?

18 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

19 MR. CARROLL: What do you reckon would
20 happen if a contaminated, unguarded shot needle ended up
21 in a trash bag?

22 JUROR GILL: There's a possibility for
23 someone to get stuck.

24 MR. CARROLL: Some poor person picking up
25 the trash bag?

1 JUROR GILL: Uh-huh. Yes, sir.

2 MR. CARROLL: Have you seen unguarded
3 needles?

4 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir, all the time.

5 MR. CARROLL: Is that a problem?

6 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

7 MR. CARROLL: Let me ask you this: Have
8 you ever heard or seen about this retractable
9 technology?

10 JUROR GILL: No, sir. I have seen
11 different needles in the hospital but not the type that 12 you-all are describing today.

13 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Let me ask you a
14 question. Judge Folsom told you a little bit about the 15 burden of proof. That's a legal term. In my words, it
16 means how hard do you have to dig to make sure you're 17 getting to the truth.

18 JUROR GILL: Uh-huh.

19 MR. CARROLL: Does that make sense?

20 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

21 MR. CARROLL: Are you a football fan?

22 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARROLL: Who's your favorite team
24 besides the Marshall Mavericks?

25 JUROR GILL: I really don't have one. I

1 like them all.

2 MR. CARROLL: Well, when you get past the
3 50-yard line, you're in the other team's area, correct?

4 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

5 MR. CARROLL: I think what Judge Folsom
6 will tell you is that for you to be satisfied that we 7 have told you the truth on infringement -- that is,
8 they're trespassing on our property -- we've got to get
9 the ball over the 50 into Mr. Beck's side of the field.
10 That's all we've got to do, is get the 11 ball across the 50. So you have to be pretty sure we're 12 right.

13 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

14 MR. CARROLL: But -- and here's the but.

15 Mr. Beck's trying to take our property
16 away from us. He says our patent's no good. He wants
17 to invalidate our patent.

18 The law says that our patent, because it
19 came out of the Patent Office, from the Constitution of 20 the United States, is preserved on -- presumed to be 21 good.

22 JUROR GILL: Uh-huh.

23 MR. CARROLL: And in order to bust our
24 patent, like Mr. Beck wants to do, he's got to get the 25 ball down into the red zone, a lot further. You have to

1 be pretty durn sure that he's right before you go with 2 him.

3 JUROR GILL: Uh-huh.

4 MR. CARROLL: Now, that means that he's
5 got to work harder to prove to you that he's got the 6 truth on his side about busting our property than we
7 have to work to prove to you that he knocked it off.
8 But that's the law.

9 Are you able to make him work harder than 10 we work because that's what the law says?

11 JUROR GILL: No, sir. I feel that
12 everybody should have an opportunity to express
13 themselves and be able to, you know, prove their case,
14 you know.

15 MR. CARROLL: Okay. I obviously confused
16 it where it didn't need to be confused, Ms. Gill.

17 JUROR GILL: Uh-huh.

18 MR. CARROLL: Here's all I'm saying: The 19 Judge is going to tell you that Mr. Beck, if he really 20 wants to go after our property, has to carry his day by 21 something called clear and convincing evidence.

22 JUROR GILL: Uh-huh.

23 MR. CARROLL: He's going to tell you that 24 that's more, under the law, than we have to prove to 25 prove that his company has infringed, or taken, without

1 our permission, our property.

2 Can you follow the law as the Judge gives
3 it to you?

4 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

5 MR. CARROLL: Okay. That's all I wanted
6 to know.

7 How long have you been in the hospital
8 business?

9 JUROR GILL: Twenty-eight years.

10 MR. CARROLL: And you've given shots, I
11 think, from looking at the questionnaire.

12 JUROR GILL: No, sir.

13 MR. CARROLL: You have not, but you've 14 been around needles?

15 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

16 MR. CARROLL: Thank you, ma'am.

17 JUROR GILL: You're welcome.

18 MR. CARROLL: Mr. Newsom, where are you?
19 There you are.

20 Mr. Newsom, you had a fence line dispute;
21 is that right?

22 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARROLL: Does the term trespass mean
24 anything to you?

25 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

1 MR. CARROLL: Were you the victim of a
2 trespass?

3 JUROR NEWSOM: No, sir. It's just a
4 division.

5 MR. CARROLL: Okay. But it turned out
6 there was a fuss over where the lines were?

7 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

8 MR. CARROLL: Okay. One of the issues
9 typically in a patent case is where the lines are; that
10 is, where -- if you think about a patent, it's like a 11 deed, I think, to a piece of property. And maybe the 12 film said that.

13 But the patent/deed tells you where the 14 lines of Mr. Shaw's invention is. You understand that?

15 JUROR NEWSOM: Right.

16 MR. CARROLL: And one of the things that 17 we say is that our friends over here at B and D crossed
18 that line, that they got on our side of the fence and 19 that they trespassed on our property.

20 Now, that concept, again, requires us to 21 prove that more likely than not. If we convince you
22 more likely than not that they have trespassed on our 23 side of the fence line, would you be able to follow the 24 Judge's instructions on that?

25 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

1 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Now, your son's a
2 lawyer up in Gilmer?

3 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

4 MR. CARROLL: Does he do any of this kind
5 of stuff?

6 JUROR NEWSOM: No, sir.

7 MR. CARROLL: He's up there with Todd
8 Tefteller?

9 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

10 MR. CARROLL: What kind of law does he 11 practice?

12 JUROR NEWSOM: Well, probate is his
13 specialty and wills and, you know, general practice.

14 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Now, that fence line
15 dispute that you told us about, did that end up in the 16 courthouse?

17 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

18 MR. CARROLL: Were you the suer or the 19 suee?

20 JUROR NEWSOM: Well, I was sued.

21 MR. CARROLL: You were sued?

22 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

23 MR. CARROLL: In this case, we're suing B
24 and D. So just like you got sued; they got sued.

25 Are you going to side with them just

1 because you're both the suee?

2 JUROR NEWSOM: Well, I'm going to hear
3 what the Judge charges us with, and then we'll make our
4 decision from that, you know.

5 MR. CARROLL: Based on the law?

6 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

7 MR. CARROLL: Based on what you believe?

8 JUROR NEWSOM: Yes, sir.

9 MR. CARROLL: That's all we ask for.

10 JUROR NEWSOM: That's what we will do.

11 MR. CARROLL: Thank you.

12 Who has ever written a letter to their
13 local newspaper editor in the letters to the editor
14 column?

15 Okay.

16 THE COURT: A response in the jury box,
17 and No. 18, it appears.

18 MR. CARROLL: Ms. Bayne?

19 JUROR BAYNE: Yes, sir.

20 MR. CARROLL: You live near Hallsville?

21 JUROR BAYNE: Yes, sir.

22 MR. CARROLL: What were you fussing
23 about?

24 JUROR BAYNE: I had a friend that was in 25 a collision, and the party that hit my friend, I felt

1 that the paper addressed that incorrectly.

2 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Is that the only
3 time you've written one?

4 JUROR BAYNE: Yes, sir.

5 MR. CARROLL: Make you feel better?

6 JUROR BAYNE: It did.

7 MR. CARROLL: Okay.

8 JUROR BAYNE: Didn't do anything, but it
9 made me feel better.

10 MR. CARROLL: You wrote it to the 11 Longview paper?

12 JUROR BAYNE: Correct.

13 MR. CARROLL: And you are in the business
14 of child education at your church.

15 JUROR BAYNE: Correct.

16 MR. CARROLL: You also have an Arbonne
17 business?

18 JUROR BAYNE: Yes, sir.

19 MR. CARROLL: You're pretty busy.

20 JUROR BAYNE: I am.

21 MR. CARROLL: Are all your kids grown?

22 JUROR BAYNE: I have a daughter that's a
23 senior and in volleyball playoffs this week.

24 MR. CARROLL: Well, congratulations.

25 Hope they win.

1 JUROR BAYNE: Thank you.

2 MR. CARROLL: There will be a time in
3 your life, like Mr. Beck and me, where people say are 4 all your kids grown and gone, and you say, well, as of 5 6:00 o'clock this morning, they were.

6 Thank you. And good luck with your team.

7 THE COURT: No. 7, Ms. McGuire.

8 MR. CARROLL: Ms. McGuire?

9 Ms. McGuire, what were you stirred up
10 about?

11 JUROR MCGUIRE: Well, I don't know that 12 it would be stirred up, but I'm very involved in the 13 community where I live, and letters, varying from 14 encouraging people to vote or attention to a particular
15 issue that might be involved. And I can't recall
16 particular topics but more than once.

17 MR. CARROLL: There to the paper in 18 Pittsburg?

19 JUROR MCGUIRE: Either to Pittsburg or to 20 the Mt. Pleasant Daily Tribune.

21 MR. CARROLL: Okay. So you're what I
22 would call a frequent letter writer?

23 Because I am, and I don't think there's
24 anything wrong with us.

25 JUROR MCGUIRE: Not frequent, not like

1 once a year, but several times I have, yes, sir.

2 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

3 Anybody else?

4 Mr. McCormack?

5 JUROR MCCORMACK: Yes, sir.

6 MR. CARROLL: You live near Leesburg.

7 That's in Camp County.

8 JUROR MCCORMACK: Yes, sir. Newsome,
9 it's even further west.

10 MR. CARROLL: Okay. And what did you
11 write about?

12 JUROR MCCORMACK: I was at the time
13 residing in the City of Mesquite, and Danny Faulkner was 14 trying to build condos from Lake Ray Hubbard to my 15 neighborhood. And I started a Neighborhood Watch
16 Association.

17 MR. CARROLL: And the rest is history.

18 JUROR MCCORMACK: Sir?

19 MR. CARROLL: And the rest is history?

20 JUROR MCCORMACK: Yes, sir.

21 MR. CARROLL: Danny goes to jail.

22 JUROR MCCORMACK: Prison.

23 MR. CARROLL: Well, congratulations.

24 JUROR MCCORMACK: Thank you.

25 MR. CARROLL: Let me ask you this real

1 quick: Do you ranch? Do you make --

2 JUROR MCCORMACK: Yes, sir.

3 MR. CARROLL: Do you try to make your
4 living from ranching and farming?

5 JUROR MCCORMACK: Not really.

6 MR. CARROLL: Okay. What do you grow?

7 JUROR MCCORMACK: Well, I've got hay and 8 cattle.

9 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Well, I hope the 10 rain helped.

11 JUROR MCCORMACK: Oh, we got plenty of
12 that.

13 MR. CARROLL: Well, good.

14 THE COURT: Do we have another response
15 in the audience? I thought I saw someone speak up.

16 MR. CARROLL: Yes. No. 32 and No. 24,
17 Your Honor.

18 Ms. Shipp?

19 JUROR SHIPP: Yes. I have just written
20 to my local paper just a time or two on encouragement
21 for our children -- I teach in school -- and some great
22 things that had happened.

23 And we're involved with the Upshur County
24 at the time where any children showed, you know,
25 thanking them for letting -- hosting heifers for the

1 Yamboree at the time. And that was a big thing, because
2 they didn't want them in. So we got it in.

3 And I just wrote to them and told them
4 thank you for the encouragement and helping my child put
5 money in his bank account for college.

6 MR. CARROLL: Good for him. Thank you,
7 ma'am.

8 Ms. Bledsoe?

9 JUROR BLEDSOE: A few years back, Linden
10 was trying to establish a hospital district, and I was 11 opposed to it and wrote several letters to the local 12 paper.

13 MR. CARROLL: Did it help?

14 JUROR BLEDSOE: Yes, it did. We defeated
15 it 2 to 1.

16 MR. CARROLL: Well, congratulations.
17 Thank you, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: Anyone else?

19 Mr. Carroll, your time is concluded,
20 other than any follow-up responses on this question.

21 MR. CARROLL: Okay. Thank you, Your
22 Honor.

23 Thank you, Ladies and Gentlemen.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Beck.

25 MR. BECK: Thank you, Your Honor. May it

1 please the Court.

2 My mother was probably one of the biggest
3 letter writers in Port Arthur, Texas, when I grew up, so
4 I really empathize with a lot of you who have written
5 letters, because she was doing it like every week.

6 Let me ask you-all some very general
7 questions. On the questionnaire that many of you filled
8 out, as you know, there was question about corporations
9 and what you think about corporations.

10 The Judge is going to instruct you, in 11 all likelihood at the end of this case, that those of 12 you who are selected as jurors must base your decision
13 on the law as the Judge instructs you and on the 14 evidence.

15 What I need to know is whether there's 16 anybody who somehow is going to say or conclude that 17 because Becton Dickinson is a larger company than RTI --
18 it's been in existence, as I said, since 1897 -- that 19 somehow we should lose?

20 In other words, you've got a relatively
21 small company on one side; you've got Becton Dickinson
22 on the other, which is a large company.

23 Is there anybody here who's going to 24 decide: Now, wait a minute. I don't know who to 25 believe in this case; I'm just going to go with the

1 small company?

2 Because if that's the case, we don't even
3 need a trial.

4 So I ask all of you collectively: Is
5 there anybody here who believes that; that simply 6 because one party is smaller than the other -- both are 7 corporations -- one party is a smaller company than the 8 other, that the smaller company ought to win?

9 Anybody who believes that, please raise
10 your hand.

11 All right. I don't see any raise of
12 hands.

13 Is there anybody who believes that simply
14 because one company is smaller than the other that you
15 must necessarily lean to the other side? Kind of like a
16 David and Goliath situation.

17 Because this is a lawsuit that's 18 important to both sides, and so it's important that the 19 jurors that we select decide this case solely on the law
20 and the facts.

21 Is there anybody who's going to lean
22 towards RTI in this case, the Plaintiff, simply because
23 they are smaller than Becton Dickinson? If so, please
24 raise your hand.

25 All right. I don't see any raise of

1 hands.

2 I want to ask everybody here: Is there
3 anybody here that believes in innovation? Please raise
4 your hand, if you believe in innovation.

5 All right. I see most people have raised
6 your hands.

7 Our position in this lawsuit is
8 essentially going to be that things can be improved, but
9 they can be improved in different ways. And innovation,
10 our position is, is at the core of this lawsuit.

11 What I need -- and if we go down to a
12 store, we see different kinds of aspirin, different
13 kinds of shampoos. And we're talking here about choice.
14 We're talking about people who use these products have a
15 choice based upon cost, based upon need, based upon
16 quality, based upon preference.

17 Is there anybody here who believes that
18 simply because these products are both retractable
19 syringe devices that somehow there's got to be 20 infringement somewhere because they're both retractable
21 syringe devices?

22 Is there anybody here who believes that?
23 If so, please raise your hand.

24 Again, I don't see any raise of hands.

25 Is there anybody here who can't listen to

1 the evidence, make a determination of, all right, we've
2 got two retractable syringes here; they have different
3 features; and we'll look at that evidence and we'll make
4 a determination of whether or not one technology
5 overlaps the other? Is there anybody here who cannot do
6 that?

7 | Again, I don't see any raise of hands.

8 I know one of you was asked about burden
9 of proof. Now, the Judge is going to tell you-all who
10 has the burden of proof on what issues. And it's a 11 little bit -- it's different depending upon what the 12 issue is.

13 But is there anybody here that does not
14 understand that when a Plaintiff brings a lawsuit, they 15 have the absolute right to do that in this country?

16 This is a democratic country, and if 17 somebody feels they're aggrieved, they've got a right to 18 come in this courthouse and file a lawsuit. But they've 19 got to prove the charges and allegations that they make.
20 And the Judge, with respect to whether or not we 21 infringe the patent, we believe will tell you that the 22 Plaintiff has to prove by a preponderance of the 23 evidence. Credible is who you believe. Concrete
24 evidence, specific evidence.

25 | Is there anybody here that cannot follow

1 Judge Folsom's instruction on who has the burden of
2 proof, the Plaintiff in this case, by a preponderance of
3 the evidence insofar as whether or not our client has 4 infringed any of their patents?

5 I take it by your silence that you can do
6 that.

7 Is there anybody here, Ladies and
8 Gentlemen, who believes that simply because two 9 different companies at two different times came up with 10 two technologies in the same area, namely, a retractable
11 syringe device, that somehow there's got to be some kind
12 of infringement here; there's just got to be?

13 Is there anybody that believes that at 14 all?

15 Because if you believe that, we need -- I
16 need you to raise your hand so we can talk to you a
17 little bit about it and make sure that because of some 18 experience or belief that you may have had, because 19 of -- again, some experience you may have had, that 20 somehow maybe you're not the best juror in this kind of 21 a case.

22 For example, because my grandkids -- I've 23 got four of the best-looking grandkids you've ever seen.
24 I know you all dispute me on that. But I could not be a
25 juror in a child molestation case for that reason. I

1 just -- I'm not -- I can't be a juror in that case.
2 I -- I couldn't be fair to the defendant in that case.
3 And that's all we're really trying to do is to find out
4 if there's some experience you-all have had that somehow
5 makes you maybe not the best juror in this case but
6 really a good juror perhaps in another case.

7 JUROR RINIER: I have a question.

8 MR. BECK: Yes, sir?

9 THE COURT: If you'll please stand, sir.
10 Raise your number, please.

11 JUROR RINIER: I'm sorry. 31.

12 In response to your premises, my question
13 is, did both sides have a valid --

14 MR. BECK: Patent?

15 JUROR RINIER: -- patent on it? Did both
16 sides have a patent? That's my question.

17 MR. BECK: Well, those are the kinds --
18 that's the kind of evidence we're going to be getting 19 into, and I can't really very well tell you what the 20 evidence is going to be, because we have certain rules
21 we've got to play by.

22 But that's going to -- we're going to be 23 getting involved in that kind of evidence during the 24 trial. And I will tell you our position is that our 25 technology -- we believe the evidence will show that our

1 technology was purchased from another company in 1999.

2 We believe that's what the evidence will show.

3 All right. Let me ask you some specific
4 questions here.

5 Mr. Rogers, if I could ask you -- you
6 told me about the owner having some type of patents. Do
7 you know generally what type of patents they are?

8 That's No. 14.

9 JUROR ROGERS: I believe they were
10 patents on improving extrusion dies for the plastics
11 industry, feed blocks and extrusion dies.

12 MR. BECK: Okay. And were you ever a
13 witness in the case, or were you involved in somehow
14 helping to support any litigation he may have been 15 involved in?

16 JUROR ROGERS: No, sir.

17 MR. BECK: Do you know whether or not --
18 and don't go into the specifics -- but do you know
19 whether or not he was -- if that litigation was resolved
20 to his satisfaction?

21 JUROR ROGERS: I do not know.

22 MR. BECK: Okay. And is there anything
23 from that experience that you think might cause you to 24 maybe lean towards RTI's side of the case simply because 25 they think that somehow we're infringing their patent,

1 and your owner thought that maybe his patents were being
2 infringed?

3 JUROR ROGERS: No, sir. That wouldn't be
4 a problem.

5 MR. BECK: Different situations and --

6 JUROR ROGERS: Totally different.

7 MR. BECK: -- and facts.

8 JUROR ROGERS: Yes, sir.

9 MR. BECK: Thank you very much.

10 Ms. Campbell, you've answered all my
11 questions already. Thank you, ma'am.

12 Mr. McCormack, there was a question that
13 was asked on the questionnaire that you did not fill
14 out. And the question was: Is it okay to copy someone
15 else's idea or products if you make some changes to it?

16 Could you tell me your general views on
17 that, if you would, please?

18 JUROR MCCORMACK: Well, I really didn't
19 have a view on it, because, you know, I don't have any 20 specifics. That's the reason why I didn't answer it.

21 MR. BECK: That's all I needed. Thank
22 you, sir.

23 Ms. Fisher, on one of the questions on 24 the questionnaire, you were asked if you felt qualified
25 to invalidate a patent that's been granted by the Patent

1 Office.

2 And there are several patents that are
3 going to be involved in this case. And we are alleging
4 that two -- every patent has a number of claims, which 5 the Judge will instruct you about. And our position is 6 that two of the claims on one patent, not all the 7 patents, but one patent are invalid.

8 Now, you heard the video that the Court
9 showed you. And if you're chosen as a juror, you're 10 going to be asked to determine whether or not these two 11 claims are invalid.

12 So my question to you is, even though you
13 may not feel qualified to invalidate, can you do that?

14 JUROR FISHER: I think as long as I'm 15 given the instruction. I need to understand the 16 terminology and the law that we are -- that's being
17 addressed. The video was helpful.

18 THE COURT: I'm going to do my best to 19 explain the law in that area.

20 JUROR FISHER: I think as long as I have
21 the right information to make a decision, I'm 22 comfortable making a decision.

23 MR. BECK: Okay. Then one other question
24 here. It said: What are your impressions of big
25 corporations in the U.S. today, and you wrote a

1 necessary evil.

2 You understand why that makes me a little
3 bit nervous in this case. Could you talk to me a little
4 bit about that, please? Could you tell me a little bit
5 more about it?

6 JUROR FISHER: I can tell you that when I
7 was filling out that questionnaire, it was really late
8 at night after a long day at work. And also, I was 9 thinking of our banking industry at the same time.

10 MR. BECK: Thinking about what?

11 JUROR FISHER: Our banking system and
12 the situation that our country is in. So that's 13 probably what colored my comment.

14 I can't really be too critical of large
15 business over small business, because on a certain
16 playing field for the company that I work for, we are a
17 big fish. And so -- I mean, in our -- in our area, we 18 serve, you know, right now probably a home census of 19 about 311 patients as opposed to some of our competitors
20 in the area who may serve 20 to 50.

21 So I think I could be objective either
22 way on that type of thing.

23 MR. BECK: That's all we need to know.

24 Thank you, ma'am.

25 Mr. George, just a quick question. I

1 know when you were asked your impression, you said
2 they're overpaid. With all the headlines I think we've
3 been seeing for the last year, I think most people agree
4 with you.

5 My question is real simple. We've got a
6 dispute here. It's about patents. It's not going to be 7 about, you know, who's making what money in terms of 8 executives, and that's not the area of the dispute.
9 The dispute is about infringement and possible validity
10 of two claims.

11 Can you just listen to the evidence and 12 call them as you see them?

13 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir.

14 MR. BECK: Thank you. That's all I need
15 to know.

16 Ms. Brown, there was a question that you
17 left blank, and it was the last one, which was kind of a
18 catch-all, which was: Is there any reason you can think 19 of why you would not be a fair and impartial juror in 20 this case?

21 Is that something you forgot to add, or 22 is there something you'd like to tell us about that?

23 JUROR BROWN: No.

24 MR. BECK: Is there any reason you know
25 of why you could not be a fair and impartial juror?

1 JUROR BROWN: No.

2 MR. BECK: Thank you, ma'am.

3 Mr. Hatten, on your questionnaire, you
4 talked about how big corporations are great if they are 5 run correctly.

6 Could you tell me a little bit about what
7 your intent was there?

8 JUROR HATTEN: I guess basically -- I'm
9 trying to think why I said that.

10 MR. BECK: Some are good; some are bad.
11 Is that --

12 JUROR HATTEN: Well, I guess -- I
13 guess -- when I -- when I made that -- made that 14 statement, you know, you have -- I work for U.S. Steel.

15 MR. BECK: That's good.

16 JUROR HATTEN: And I've worked for Lone
17 Star Steel. What I mean by that, basically, is ran
18 correctly is -- in other words, people doing the right
19 thing on the job or for the company aspect --

20 MR. BECK: Not trying to put stuff in 21 their own pockets?

22 JUROR HATTEN: Right. That's basically
23 what I said.

24 MR. BECK: I think I understand. Thank
25 you very much.

1 Ms. Doty, one question. When you talked
2 about the impressions of big corporation, you said they
3 don't care for the little man.

4 Can you tell me what you mean by that,
5 please?

6 JUROR DOTY: That's true. They don't.

7 MR. BECK: Is there anybody here that
8 doesn't believe that?

9 You heard what I asked earlier about, you
10 know, we're bigger than they are. We started out in 11 1897 and grew to be pretty large. He keeps changing it.
12 They are not as big as we are obviously.

13 And is your view that you've expressed on 14 here going to in any way color your decision that you're 15 going to be making at the end of this case?

16 JUROR DOTY: No. I would like to add
17 that I wish the retractable needle would have been in 18 business in like 1970. I had a shot in my mouth. It
19 affected my eye, and I'm losing the sight in that eye
20 then -- now.

21 MR. BECK: Was this at the dentist's
22 office?

23 JUROR DOTY: Uh-huh. Just a plain,
24 ordinary, old-timey needle that had a bacterial germ on 25 it.

1 MR. BECK: I'm sorry to hear that. I
2 wish retractables had been around then.

3 JUROR DOTY: But I -- no, that
4 wouldn't have any effect on my decision.

5 MR. BECK: Okay. Thank you, ma'am.

6 Ms. Gill, just a quick question. I
7 noticed that you said that everybody needs a watchdog
8 over them. And you mentioned the Maddoff situation,
9 which I'm sure everybody would agree with.

10 Again, can you listen to the evidence in 11 this case and just base your decision on what you
12 believe is right and fair under the circumstances?

13 JUROR GILL: Yes, sir.

14 MR. BECK: Thank you, ma'am.

15 Ms. Johnson, just a quick question. You
16 talked about your impression of big corporations, and 17 you said not real good.

18 JUROR E. JOHNSON: That's right.

19 MR. BECK: Obviously that got my
20 attention because we're relatively, compared --
21 certainly compared to RTI, we're a big corporation.
22 And what I need to find out is your general impression,
23 which is not real good, of big corporations.

24 Is it in any going to color your view of 25 the evidence in this case? In other words, are you

1 going to look at the evidence and just say: Now, wait a
2 minute. This is coming from RTI, and I don't think a
3 whole lot of big corporations, and, therefore, I'm going
4 to believe RTI's side of the case as opposed to Becton
5 Dickinson?

6 JUROR E. JOHNSON: No. I don't think so
7 at all. I mean, my deal with big corporations is, I
8 remember back in an era when I grew up when you went to 9 work for a company, you stayed with that company; the 10 company took care of you.

11 Today it seems like the companies are 12 more interested in taking care of the big guy up at the 13 top than the little guy that's doing all the work.

14 MR. BECK: I got you. I got you.

15 JUROR E. JOHNSON: And I don't think one
16 has anything to do with the other.

17 MR. BECK: Thank you. That's what I
18 needed to know.

19 Just another quick question from 20 Ms. Stacy. Same question having to do with 21 corporations. You say that they place importance on 22 profits not on job creation and job stability.

23 Again, that got my attention, because
24 obviously I'm representing a company who believes
25 they're right in this case. And if you're going to be a

1 juror, I need to know whether or not your general
2 impression is in any way going to color your view of the 3 evidence in this case.

4 JUROR STACY: I don't think so.

5 MR. BECK: Okay. You think you can
6 listen to the evidence, and if you believe that our 7 client is introducing information and evidence that is
8 accurate and truthful, you can accept that even though
9 it may be coming from an employee of a big company?

10 JUROR STACY: Yes.

11 MR. BECK: As you know, I think,
12 companies are made up of employees, right?

13 JUROR STACY: Right.

14 MR. BECK: And you can listen to the 15 evidence of our employees, just as from the Plaintiff's
16 employees, and then base your decision on that evidence?

17 JUROR STACY: Yes.

18 MR. BECK: Thank you, ma'am.

19 Mr. Kipp, one of the questions you had on 20 the questionnaire, you said that when you worked at GM,
21 you mean General Motors, I take it?

22 JUROR KIPP: Yes.

23 MR. BECK: Where did you work for General
24 Motors?

25 JUROR KIPP: I'm sorry?

1 MR. BECK: Where did you work for them?

2 JUROR KIPP: Both in New York state and
3 over in Shreveport, Louisiana.

4 MR. BECK: Okay. It says that you and a
5 co-worker suggested a way to save GM money.

6 JUROR KIPP: Yes, we did.

7 MR. BECK: And what was the nature of
8 your suggestion just generally?

9 JUROR KIPP: It was what they had -- I
10 can say it real fast. It was a seat cover -- a seat
11 track cover. That's the thing that makes the seat go
12 back and forth. And for the different models, they had 13 different colors. And we just said make them all the 14 same color, because there was probably 40 different
15 parts. And for every part they could eliminate, it was 16 a lot of money.

17 Well, with that suggestion, we saved them
18 probably millions of dollars at the time, because it
19 was -- anyway, we got scolded for making a styling
20 suggestion. So ever since that, I kind of had a little
21 bit of a bad attitude. And that's all.

22 MR. BECK: So I take it you-all didn't
23 get credit for the suggestion you made?

24 JUROR KIPP: We did not get credit. We
25 got -- we sort of got punished. They said don't do this

1 anymore. Then they did it anyway.

2 MR. BECK: So somebody else took credit?

3 JUROR KIPP: Yes, they did.

4 MR. BECK: Okay. Now, what I need to ask
5 you is whether or not that is -- how long ago was that?

6 JUROR KIPP: That was in 1985.

7 MR. BECK: Okay. I need to ask you
8 whether that experience is in any way going to color
9 your thinking or your review of the evidence in the 10 case?

11 Because, obviously, the Plaintiffs are 12 arguing in this case that they came up with some kind of 13 an idea which was new and different and revolutionary,
14 and somehow we took it. We dispute that. We're going
15 to show what our technology is.

16 But I need to know whether or not your
17 experience is going to affect you at all.

18 JUROR KIPP: Once I hear it, I would have
19 to make my decision based on what I hear.

20 MR. BECK: Okay. That's all we can ask.

21 Thank you, sir.

22 Mr. Crosse?

23 JUROR CROSSE: Yes.

24 MR. BECK: Just a quick question, sir.

25 There was a question on the resume (sic) about your

1 impression of big companies, and it was left blank.

2 Is there anything you can share with us
3 about your views?

4 JUROR CROSSE: I've never had anything to
5 do with big companies.

6 MR. BECK: Okay.

7 JUROR CROSSE: Except for the Army, and
8 that's not a company.

9 MR. BECK: It doesn't get much bigger
10 than that. I know my son is in the Marine Corps. He 11 probably has so many bosses, he doesn't know what to do.

12 JUROR CROSSE: Four tours of Vietnam.

13 MR. BECK: What's that?

14 JUROR CROSSE: They sent me on four tours
15 of Vietnam.

16 MR. BECK: Is that right? I had two
17 brothers in Vietnam. They were there for 13 months,
18 too.

19 JUROR CROSSE: So it makes an impression.

20 MR. BECK: When were you in Vietnam?

21 JUROR CROSSE: First time was 1961, '64,
22 '67, and '71.

23 MR. BECK: And which branch were you in?

24 JUROR CROSSE: Army, aviation.

25 MR. BECK: Okay. Thank you very much.

1 Or thank you for your service.

2 JUROR CROSSE: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Beck, I am told your time
4 is up.

5 MR. BECK: All right. Thank you, Your
6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Ladies and Gentlemen, I appreciate your
9 patience. There's one matter I need to take up with 10 Mr. Beck and Mr. Carroll at the bench, and then we'll 11 talk about our schedule and see if it causes anyone a 12 hardship.

13 (Bench conference.)

14 THE COURT: Anyone y'all are going to 15 request to be excused for cause based on the 16 questionnaires or anything you've heard here today?

17 MR. BECK: There is nothing I heard in 18 the courtroom this morning, but there are a couple --

19 THE COURT: Because I haven't looked at 20 these questionnaires nearly as close as the two of you.

21 MR. BECK: If I can check with my people.
22 I think there were a couple that we may want to raise a
23 question, but we're not talking about a big number.

24 THE COURT: I want to take care of those
25 before I take care of the hardships. So why don't you

1 confer.

2 Mr. Carroll, you don't have any?

3 MR. CARROLL: No, sir.

4 THE COURT: Why don't you remain right
5 here, and then Mr. Beck will...

6 MR. BECK: Okay.

7 (Pause in bench conference.)

8 THE COURT: No?

9 MR. BECK: No, sir.

10 THE COURT: Very well. Thank you.

11 (Bench conference concluded.)

12 MR. CARROLL: May I be excused?

13 THE COURT: Mr. Beck, that's a no?

14 MR. BECK: That is a no, yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Ladies and Gentlemen of the 16 Jury, let me give you an outline of the schedule of the 17 trial of this case. Then I'll take up any hardship
18 excuses.

19 It's a little unusual for me, one, to be 20 selecting a jury on Friday, but between my schedule and 21 the schedule of the lawyers and the witnesses, this is 22 the day we all could meet for this purpose.

23 So we're going to select this jury and 24 seat this jury. Then Judge Everingham will come in and 25 select a jury, and that's probably going to take until,

1 you know 1:00, 1:30, somewhere in that neighborhood,
2 depending upon how long his process takes.

3 Then we're going to actually have opening
4 statements in this case this afternoon.

5 I know this is Friday, and a lot of you
6 have probably planned maybe a trip to a volleyball game
7 or a football game or whatever. We're going to try to 8 break early today. I don't know exactly when early is 9 but, hopefully, 3:30, 4:00 o'clock is the latest,
10 depending upon when we can start our opening statements.

11 But my normal routine, as these lawyers
12 that have been in my Court, know that my cardinal rule
13 is you're here to give us your time. We're not going to 14 waste it. So I start promptly each morning at 9:00
15 o'clock, because I know some of you have a rather
16 lengthy drive. And I have a 75-mile drive, and my staff
17 each day. So I can sympathize with you.

18 I try to be here about 8:30 to take up
19 any issues with the lawyers to make sure this case moves
20 along smoothly as possible.

21 We'll take -- we will start promptly at
22 9:00. We'll take a break each morning from about 10:30
23 to 10:45, 10:50. Then we will take a lunch break from 24 about generally 12:00 to 1:30. And that's a little 25 longer than you are probably used to at work, but here's

1 the reason for that.

2 Generally, at 12:00 o'clock, when I
3 recess and I meet with the lawyers and we take up any
4 issues that need to be addressed, and we might be here
5 30 minutes or so. And I don't know about the lawyers.
6 I like to have a little lunch occasionally.

7 So we'll try to take about an hour and a
8 half break. Then we'll take a break from 3:30, 3:45,
9 3:50. Then I try to let you go home pretty promptly at 10 5:00 o'clock, because some of you have a long drive, and 11 you have matters to take care of at home.

12 And likewise, I have a drive. And I meet
13 with the lawyers after 5:00 o'clock, and we talk about 14 issues that try -- we try to streamline this case and 15 not waste your time.

16 Now try as we might, occasionally issues
17 arise that will probably require you to go to the jury
18 room while we work on it. But let me assure you, it's 19 an absolute necessity when we -- when we do that.
20 But that's sort of a normal trial day.

21 Now, I -- I have put the lawyers on the 22 clock, just like in the jury selection. They have a
23 certain amount of time to try this case. So if they're 24 asking the same question four, five, or six different
25 ways -- and that's one of my most common complaints,

1 when I talk to jurors, about lawyers asking the same
2 question over and over and maybe in a slightly different
3 fashion.

4 We have very good lawyers, and I'm
5 confident they won't do that. But if they are, they're 6 using their time.

7 With all that said, we hope to finish
8 this case a week from today, next Friday. If we have 9 some problems, it might run over until Monday the 8th.
10 Is that -- of November.

11 COURTROOM DEPUTY: The 9th.

12 THE COURT: The 9th of November. So
13 that's basically our schedule.

14 We don't want to cause anyone a hardship.
15 And let me give you some common examples of hardship.
16 You know, maybe your employment simply cannot go on 17 without you. You're a one-person office, or simply if 18 you're not a one-person office, you're a supervisor, and 19 absolutely you can't miss that much work.

20 Or maybe you have a long schedule,
21 prepaid trip for next week. We're sure not going to 22 interfere with that. Or you have someone having
23 surgery, a family member, or maybe a long-scheduled
24 doctor's appointment that it would take you three or 25 four months to reschedule it. None of us want to cause

1 a hardship.

2 I know it's going -- it's going to
3 inconvenience all of us to be here for the next week.
4 So I'm looking for sure-enough hardship issues. And
5 those are some examples. There are many others.
6 I've had everything in the last 15 years you could
7 imagine: Marriages scheduled, honeymoons, and so on and 8 so forth. So that will give you a chance to tell me if 9 this creates a hardship.

10 I want you to go through a little mental 11 exercise for me first. I want you to assume you're 12 going to turn to the person on your right and the person
13 on your left and convince them that their -- your 14 hardship is such they should serve rather than you. So
15 oftentimes, that will sort of cut down this process.
16 And likewise, I don't want you to know what works and 17 what doesn't work. So we'll let you approach the bench
18 with Mr. Carroll and Mr. Beck to take up your hardships.

19 If you're selected -- we're going to use
20 a ten-person jury. And the rules in place in our 21 district on a civil case, we can use as few as six and 22 as many as twelve. I've selected we're going to use a
23 ten-person jury. No one's an alternate. All ten people
24 will arrive at the verdict, if you're not dismissed for 25 some reason.

1 So when you look around and see if you're
2 selected and there's only ten people, that's the reason.
3 With that, does this create a hardship for anyone on Row
4 1?

5 We'll start with No. 3, Ms. Fisher. If
6 you will come around.

7 Mr. Beck, Mr. Carroll, you're certainly
8 entitled to be present.

9 | If you'll come around, please.

10 | (Bench conference.)

11 THE COURT: Tell us your circumstances.

12 JUROR FISHER: It's work-related, and I
13 probably could discuss it with my supervisor today. It
14 puts the rest of the office staff that are responsible 15 for triaging phone calls from patients under a lot of 16 heavier workload.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 JUROR FISHER: You know, we get a lot of 19 phone calls each day to troubleshoot patient problems
20 over the phone.

21 THE COURT: You're with hospice, correct?

22 JUROR FISHER: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. If 23 it were a day or two, it would be one thing, but the 24 thought of a whole week, I should probably...

25 THE COURT: Well, what are your thoughts?

1 I know both -- everyone would love to have you serve,
2 but you're best-suited to determine what type of
3 hardship that would create.

4 JUROR FISHER: The fact that it's a whole
5 week makes it very difficult. I think it would create a
6 hardship on my other co-workers.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. Well, would you like
8 to call your supervisor while we're taking these up and 9 then report?

10 JUROR FISHER: I could do that.

11 THE COURT: If they say that's not a
12 problem, then great.

13 JUROR FISHER: I could do that.

14 THE COURT: On a personal note, I have a
15 good friend from high school that -- and this is up in 16 Southwest Arkansas, best friend -- that's dying of a
17 brain tumor. I just can't tell you what great work
18 hospice in that area does and what a wonderful service
19 it is.

20 JUROR FISHER: Thank you. We love what
21 we do, so...

22 THE COURT: Yeah, I understand.

23 Why don't you go call, and then we'll let 24 you report back.

25 Gentlemen, y'all have any particular

1 preference on whether --

2 MR. CARROLL: We don't have any objection
3 to excusing her.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Beck?

5 MR. BECK: I would like to hear back from
6 her supervisor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. I thought one side or
8 the other might not like that.

9 (Bench conference concluded.)

10 THE COURT: Mr. George?

11 (Bench conference.)

12 THE COURT: We will see what her
13 supervisor says.

14 Yes, Mr. George.

15 JUROR GEORGE: I claim my exemption as a
16 volunteer fireman.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Is that -- I don't
18 know.

19 COURTROOM DEPUTY: That's not one.

20 THE COURT: I think that's a -- at the 21 state level, unfortunately, but do you think you've --
22 we don't recognize the exemption, but do you need --
23 would it be difficult serving?

24 JUROR GEORGE: That, and on my job, I'm 25 the only one there certified to do CPR and first aid for

1 400 people.

2 THE COURT: Well, I think that's
3 certainly a -- and I'm sorry we don't recognize the 4 volunteer, but we'll excuse you. If you're the only
5 person that can provide first aid, you need to be there.

6 JUROR GEORGE: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: If you'll be patient with us,
8 we'll probably have everyone out of here before noon.

9 JUROR GEORGE: Okay. I just go back over
10 there?

11 THE COURT: Yes. Please.

12 (Bench conference concluded.)

13 THE COURT: Anyone else in the jury --
14 yes, sir, come around, please.

15 (Bench conference.)

16 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Hatten?

17 JUROR HATTEN: Yes. I also am a grower
18 for Pilgrim Price.

19 THE COURT: Excuse me?

20 JUROR HATTEN: I'm a grower, and I'm
21 getting my birds in Tuesday.

22 THE COURT: You're --

23 JUROR HATTEN: I'm getting my birds in 24 Tuesday, and I have to finish preparing everything for 25 that.

1 THE COURT: That would create quite a
2 problem if you were --

3 JUROR HATTEN: Yes. I mean, because I
4 have to be there when they bring them.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I think under those
6 circumstances, we will excuse you and hope you can get
7 all your work done.

8 If you will just be patient and stay with
9 us until we finish.

10 JUROR HATTEN: That's not a problem
11 today, but I know Monday and Tuesday, I have to finish
12 up.

13 THE COURT: Problem?

14 JUROR HATTEN: I have to finish
15 everything up.

16 MR. BECK: Rain going to be a problem?

17 JUROR HATTEN: No, it won't be a problem.
18 I'm going to be on the inside. I'm going to do what I
19 got to do.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 (Bench conference concluded.)

22 THE COURT: Anyone else in the jury box?

23 Yes, sir. We'll start with No. 14,
24 Mr. Rogers.

25 (Bench conference.)

1 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Rogers?

2 JUROR ROGERS: Yes, sir. I'm a plant
3 supervisor, and currently, I'm doing all the duties
4 there. We've recently had a layoff. I'm a secretary,
5 programmer, I mean, everything.

6 THE COURT: How many employees are at 7 your plant?

8 JUROR ROGERS: I have 15 right now.

9 THE COURT: So it would be quite a
10 problem for you to be away?

11 JUROR ROGERS: Yes, sir. I have 15
12 during the day and 7 at night.

13 THE COURT: I'll excuse you under those 14 circumstances.

15 JUROR ROGERS: Okay.

16 THE COURT: If you'll remain with us, we
17 should have everyone out of here, hopefully, in the next
18 30 minutes or so.

19 JUROR ROGERS: Thank you.

20 (Bench conference concluded.)

21 THE COURT: Anyone else?

22 No. 12.

23 (Bench conference.)

24 THE COURT: Yes, sir, Mr. Peace?

25 JUROR PEACE: I am self-employed,

1 financial adviser, commission-based only, so if I'm not
2 working, I'm not making any money.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Well, so that might
4 create a financial hardship.

5 JUROR PEACE: It would.

6 THE COURT: Well, we don't want that.

7 And you know Mr. Mercy and Mr. Tidwell;
8 is that correct?

9 JUROR PEACE: I do.

10 THE COURT: You wouldn't hold that 11 against --

12 JUROR PEACE: Coach both their kids.

13 THE COURT: You wouldn't hold that
14 against Mr. Carter, would you?

15 JUROR PEACE: No, I wouldn't.

16 THE COURT: Very well. We understand.
17 You don't think that $40 a day would --

18 JUROR PEACE: I don't know that my wife
19 could make it on that.

20 THE COURT: Thank you. If you'll be
21 patient, we'll have everyone out of here.

22 JUROR PEACE: All right, sir.

23 (Bench conference concluded.)

24 THE COURT: Anyone else in the jury box?
25 In the audience?

1 First row, No. 18.

2 (Bench conference.)

3 MR. BECK: Judge, did you strike him?

4 THE COURT: Yes. No. 14 -- I mean, 12.

5 Excuse me.

6 MR. BECK: 12.

7 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am?

8 JUROR BAYNE: I know it sounds trivial to
9 you --

10 THE COURT: Well, I'm sure it's not.

11 JUROR BAYNE: But, all next week, we have 12 playoffs and I don't know if they're going to be in the 13 Dallas area or what. And so if I'm here until 5:00, I
14 may not make it.

15 THE COURT: That's not trivial, let me
16 assure you. I was an old volleyball player way before
17 volleyball was --

18 MR. CARROLL: Cool.

19 THE COURT: Was cool, yeah.

20 JUROR BAYNE: It's her senior year, and 21 I'm not willing to miss that.

22 THE COURT: You'd be mad at all of us if
23 you had to miss. I hope she does well.

24 Where does she play?

25 JUROR BAYNE: Thank you. Hallsville.

1 THE COURT: Hallsville. Hope they do
2 well.

3 JUROR BAYNE: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: If you'll be patient and stay
5 with us until we release everyone.

6 JUROR BAYNE: Just go back and sit down?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 (Bench conference concluded.)

9 THE COURT: Anyone else in the audience?

10 (Bench conference.)

11 THE COURT: I'M trying to decide how far
12 we're actually going to reach.

13 MR. CARROLL: 29, I believe, Judge.

14 MR. BECK: 25, too.

15 THE COURT: We'll go ahead and go through
16 them. That way I won't be charged if they're excused
17 for cause. You know they take out of my salary if I
18 waste someone, and it's small enough as it is.

19 MR. BECK: You're the chief.

20 (Bench conference concluded.)

21 THE COURT: No. 25, I believe.

22 (Bench conference.)

23 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Whitlock; is 24 that correct?

25 JUROR WHITLOCK: Yes. I don't drive and

1 it makes a hardship, because my husband can't work when
2 I --

3 THE COURT: Okay. So it doesn't -- it
4 would keep him away from work?

5 JUROR WHITLOCK: Yes, keep him away from
6 work. I'm a housewife. We'd keep him away from work.

7 THE COURT: Well, that could create quite 8 a burden on --

9 JUROR WHITLOCK: Yes, and our finances.

10 THE COURT: I understand. We're not
11 going to cause that hardship, so I assume you don't have 12 anyone you could -- of course, we don't know who's going
13 to be on the jury.

14 You know anyone here that's on the panel
15 today that you could --

16 JUROR WHITLOCK: No.

17 THE COURT: We wouldn't know if you were
18 going to end up being on the panel with them.

19 JUROR WHITLOCK: No, I don't know --

20 THE COURT: So we'll excuse you. If
21 you'll be patient, we'll all be out of here before noon.

22 JUROR WHITLOCK: Okay.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 MR. BECK: Thank you, ma'am.

25 (Bench conference concluded).

1 THE COURT: Next number?

2 27.

3 (Bench conference.)

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir?

5 JUROR BOUKNIGHT: I'm one of two
6 mechanics in the school district and a sub bus driver
7 also at Gilmer school. A week would be a little --

8 THE COURT: A little much?

9 JUROR BOUKNIGHT: Yeah, a little much for 10 them.

11 THE COURT: Under those circumstances, we
12 want to keep those buses running.

13 JUROR BOUKNIGHT: Yes, sir. We got to 14 keep them rolling to get those little darlings to 15 school.

16 THE COURT: I was a bus driver for a
17 year.

18 JUROR BOUKNIGHT: I've been doing it 17
19 years. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

21 (Bench conference concluded.)

22 THE COURT: 22.

23 (Bench conference.)

24 THE COURT: Got another bus driver.

25 MR. BECK: Did you really drive a bus?

1 THE COURT: Uh-huh. I taught two years.

2 MR. BECK: Arkansas?

3 THE COURT: Arkansas High and the
4 first -- I'll show you how old I am. My first contract
5 was 4600. The second year I drove a bus, and it was 125
6 a month. So I was in big money then.

7 Yes, ma'am?

8 JUROR WILKERSON: I am a bus driver. I
9 don't think I could take off all that time.

10 THE COURT: Well, the previous person was 11 a bus driver.

12 JUROR WILKERSON: And I'm in business, a
13 cleaning business for myself. I clean our church, and I
14 don't know --

15 THE COURT: You just couldn't --

16 JUROR WILKERSON: It would be hard on me.

17 THE COURT: I was just telling the 18 previous juror that I was an old bus driver, so I
19 understand such things.

20 JUROR WILKERSON: Yes. We have no subs.
21 Nobody wants to drive anymore.

22 THE COURT: I can't imagine why.

23 JUROR WILKERSON: Let me tell you.

24 THE COURT: Well, thank you.

25 MR. BECK: 29, I believe, Judge.

1 (Bench conference concluded.)

2 THE COURT: 29.

3 (Bench conference.)

4 THE COURT: I tried to get Heartfield to
5 come up and try this case, and I couldn't rope him in.

6 MR. BECK: He won't handle a patent case.

7 THE COURT: He got vaccinated on the 8 first one. He was smarter than I was.

9 JUROR PRICE: Excuse me.

10 THE COURT: Good morning, Ms. Price.

11 JUROR PRICE: Yes, sir. I have an
12 appointment with my daughter who's 14 at the oral
13 surgeon. They made this appointment for us because of a
14 problem that she's having that's got to be taken care
15 of.

16 THE COURT: And when is that?

17 JUROR PRICE: It's Monday at 9:30.

18 THE COURT: Well, we don't want to --
19 don't want to cause her to miss that. No one else could 20 take her?

21 JUROR PRICE: No, sir, because it's --
22 it's my insurance. She's on my insurance. We had to 23 get that date set, the money paid, all of that. And my 24 husband's like I don't know --

25 THE COURT: Yeah.

1 JUROR PRICE: So --

2 THE COURT: You're a claims examiner
3 with Blue Cross.

4 JUROR PRICE: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Can I talk to you about a
6 claim while you're up here? No?

7 I hope all goes well with your daughter.

8 JUROR PRICE: Thank you. She's scared to 9 death.

10 MR. CARROLL: Bless her heart.

11 THE COURT: How old is she?

12 JUROR PRICE: She is 14; she will be 15
13 the 14th. And she's got a wisdom tooth coming in on a 14 nerve.

15 MR. CARROLL: Ow.

16 JUROR PRICE: And if we don't get it
17 taken care of quick, she's going to have problems.

18 THE COURT: We all hope that goes well.

19 If you'll be patient, we'll have you out
20 of here before noon.

21 JUROR PRICE: Thank you, sir. Thank
22 y'all.

23 MR. BECK: Good luck.

24 (Bench conference concluded.)

25 THE COURT: Ms. Fisher, if you will come

1 back, please.

2 (Bench conference.)

3 THE COURT: Got a report for us?

4 JUROR FISHER: She said if I get picked,
5 that's okay. She will make it work.

6 THE COURT: Great. Tell her that we
7 appreciate it. Thank you.

8 MR. BECK: Thank you very much.

9 THE COURT: There's a strike.

10 MR. CARROLL: You're right.

11 (Bench conference concluded.)

12 THE COURT: We were down No. 27 and 29.
13 What's the next number after 29?

14 MR. BECK: 33.

15 MR. CARROLL: 33.

16 THE COURT: 33, please.

17 (Bench conference.)

18 THE COURT: That way I won't be charged 19 with it. I'm going to be quick to excuse him because 20 we're not going to reach him.

21 Yes, sir?

22 JUROR STICKLE: Yes, sir. I'm a high
23 school CTE teacher, building trade and so forth, plus
24 I'm a bus driver.

25 THE COURT: We have had all the bus

1 drivers today.

2 JUROR STICKLE: And that would be quite
3 an inconvenience for me as well as my district.

4 THE COURT: We're going to excuse you. I
5 was -- I've told the two other bus drivers that I drove
6 a bus for a year, so I understand those problems.

7 JUROR STICKLE: Well --

8 THE COURT: Are you driving some of the 9 team up to Texas High tonight?

10 JUROR STICKLE: No. I get enough of it
11 with a 27-and-a-half-mile trip, round trip, a day,
12 morning and evening.

13 THE COURT: I understand. Who's going to 14 win that game tonight? Hallsville, Texas?

15 JUROR STICKLE: I'm going to throw that 16 one up in the air.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 JUROR STICKLE: Thank you.

19 (Bench conference concluded.)

20 THE COURT: I think that -- is that 21 everyone?

22 34.

23 (Bench conference.)

24 THE COURT: She's going to be quick to
25 receive an excuse, because we're not going to reach her.

1 JUROR A. JOHNSON: Y'all are scary.

2 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Excuse me?

3 JUROR A. JOHNSON: Y'all are so scary.

4 THE COURT: So scary? Is this
5 intimidating?

6 JUROR A. JOHNSON: Uh-huh, a little bit.
7 I have a conference. I'm a schoolteacher, a preschool
8 teacher, a director of our afternoon program. And the 9 conference is Thursday and Friday.

10 THE COURT: We want you to make that, so
11 we're going to give you an excuse.

12 JUROR A. JOHNSON: Okay. All right.

13 (Bench conference concluded.)

14 THE COURT: Anyone else?

15 37.

16 (Bench conference.)

17 THE COURT: Sorry to take your time, but
18 that is some crazy stat that they look at that -- why, I
19 don't know.

20 MR. BECK: If this woman is a bus driver,
21 I'm calling for an investigation.

22 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am?

23 JUROR HARDING: I'm real embarrassed.

24 THE COURT: Why is that?

25 JUROR HARDING: (Indicates a wardrobe

1 malfunction.) My zipper split open and a lady in the 2 restroom has got me all pinned up.

3 THE COURT: Well, I think that's a good
4 reason. You know, this is the first --

5 JUROR HARDING: To sit through trial.

6 THE COURT: You know, I've had a lot of
7 excuses. I tell you what I'm going to do to make you a
8 special exception. I'm going to let you go right out of 9 the courtroom and be on your way.

10 JUROR HARDING: I didn't know what I was 11 going to do.

12 MR. CARROLL: That suit is beautiful.

13 JUROR HARDING: Thank you, but it's a
14 little short.

15 (Bench conference concluded.)

16 THE COURT: Anyone else?

17 38.

18 (Bench conference.)

19 THE COURT: That's a first.

20 COURTROOM DEPUTY: She wanted to show it
21 to you.

22 THE COURT: Yes, sir?

23 JUROR COX: This may not be a legitimate
24 excuse, but I teach high school agriculture. And we've 25 have got several activities coming up next week. I

1 really need to be there.

2 THE COURT: That's a legitimate excuse,
3 so we're going to give you --

4 JUROR COX: As much as I would like to
5 listen to this, because my daughter is in nursing
6 school, I really want to hear it. I hate to rat on 7 those kids.

8 THE COURT: We're going to let you on --
9 if you'll just be patient with us and stay for a few
10 more minutes.

11 JUROR COX: Appreciate it.

12 (Bench conference concluded.)

13 THE COURT: Anyone else that we haven't
14 taken up your excuse?

15 Thank you for your patience and your
16 willingness to serve.

17 (Bench conference.)

18 THE COURT: Let's go count the list and 19 make sure we're all on the same page. I have excused 20 for cause 4, 6, 12, 14, 18, 22, 25, 27, 29, 33, 34, 37,
21 39.

22 Where do we --

23 MR. BECK: Was that 38 or --

24 COURTROOM DEPUTY: 38.

25 MR. BECK: 37 was the last one, Judge.

1 MR. CARROLL: Judge, wait just a minute.

2 THE COURT: I thought it was 38 rather
3 than 39.

4 COURTROOM DEPUTY: 39.

5 MR. CARROLL: Okay. 31 is not excused,
6 right?

7 MR. BECK: Correct.

8 THE COURT: We're not going to reach 31
9 anyway.

10 MR. CARROLL: Okay. So that's -- that's 11 4 and 6 on the first page. 4, 6, 12, 14, 18 --

12 THE COURT: 22.

13 MR. CARROLL: -- 22, 25, and 27.

14 THE COURT: 29, 33.

15 MR. CARROLL: 33.

16 THE COURT: 34.

17 MR. CARROLL: And 34.

18 THE COURT: 37.

19 MR. CARROLL: And then 37 and 8.

20 THE COURT: We're going to have to let a
21 young person come up here with you, Otis, if you
22 can't --

23 MR. CARROLL: Judge, I tell you, I'm 24 getting --

25 MR. BECK: Judge, the numbers have always

1 been a problem for him.

2 MR. CARROLL: -- feeble. I'm feeble.

3 THE COURT: Other than writing up damage
4 numbers.

5 MR. BECK: That's exactly right.

6 MR. CARROLL: But they're getting larger
7 every month.

8 THE COURT: Okay. We're going to use a
9 ten-person jury. Give each side six strikes, so we'll
10 be striking --

11 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Through 31.

12 THE COURT: -- through 31.

13 MR. CARROLL: Six cuts each.

14 THE COURT: Six cuts each. Try to have 15 them back in 15 minutes, because I want to let Chad have 16 this courtroom as quickly as possible.

17 (Bench conference concluded.)

18 THE COURT: Very well, Ladies and
19 Gentlemen. We appreciate your patience. We're going to 20 take a 15-minute recess while the attorneys exercise
21 their strikes. Then we'll come back in.

22 When you come back in, all the jurors be 23 seated on the right-hand side of the courtroom, my 24 right, in no particular location. We'll need the jury
25 box emptied to seat the ten members of the panel that

1 will serve.

2 So with those comments, we'll be in
3 recess for 15 minutes.

4 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: All rise.

5 (Recess.)

6 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: All rise.

7 (Jury panel in.)

8 THE COURT: Please be seated.

9 I appreciate your patience. And at this
10 time, we will seat the jury that will serve in this
11 case. As your name is called, please come and have a 12 seat in the order your name is called starting with 13 Juror No. 1.

14 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Raymond McCormack,
15 Linda Brown, Martha Doty.

16 THE COURT: We will put five on the 17 bottom and five on the top.

18 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Robert Kipp, Debra
19 Aldridge, Merle Crosse, Waylon Johnson, Bonnie Strauss,
20 Richard Nash, and Shirley Shaw.

21 THE COURT: Is the jury fine with the 22 parties?

23 MR. CARROLL: Good. Fine for the 24 Plaintiff, Your Honor.

25 MR. BECK: Fine, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Martin, if you will
2 render the jury oath.

3 COURTROOM DEPUTY: If you will stand and
4 raise your right hand.

5 (Jury sworn.)

6 THE COURT: Very well.

7 For those of you not selected, we
8 appreciate your attendance. Your numbers were necessary
9 to complete this process.

10 You will have an exemption for two years
11 at the federal level. So if you receive a jury notice,
12 you have an exemption, but you're certainly welcome up
13 here and serve if you'd like.

14 Your jury fee and mileage checks should
15 be in the mail Thursday of next week.

16 COURTROOM DEPUTY: Tuesday.

17 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Sooner than 18 expected.

19 If you don't receive it in a timely
20 fashion, as I'm fond of saying, call Ms. Martin, not me.
21 But with that, very shortly you will be excused. But,
22 truly, we appreciate your service here today. We know
23 it's an inconvenience.

24 For those of you selected to serve, Judge
25 Everingham tells me it's going to take about two hours,

1 same amount of time we used, to select the jury he is
2 about to select.

3 So I'm going to suggest you be back a
4 little before 2:00 o'clock. Needless to say, if you
5 want to come back earlier, Mr. Potts, let's make the 6 jury room available for your convenience and comfort.
7 But if you have some shopping to do or whatever, you're
8 welcome to stay or gone until a little before 2:00.
9 And we're going to try to start promptly at 2:00 o'clock
10 or very close thereto. And we have about an hour and a
11 half, if the attorneys use all their time on opening.

12 And my experience is been -- has been,
13 generally, lawyers are going to use all the time you
14 give them. So that would take us to about 3:30.

15 And then I think we'll break for the day,
16 because some of you may have things to do on Friday.

17 Then I have some housekeeping work I can 18 do with the lawyers. And that way, we can all be out of 19 here at a somewhat reasonable hour on Friday.

20 So we'll be in recess.

21 Now, for the lawyers, those of you that
22 are going to be doing the opening, I want to talk about 23 some of the slide issues that have arisen, and 24 Mr. Keyzer will ask you to come around shortly.

25 I assume maybe you have color copies for

1 my convenience, if you'll bring a copy, and we'll take
2 those up, and then we'll take a lunch break.

3 We'll be in recess.

4 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: All rise.

5 (Recess.)
